Ministers Letter May 2016.

They say that writing, or writing a sermon as a preacher is ninety percent perspiration and ten percent inspiration. Well it certainly feels like one of those occasions.

I recall a Beatles song Lady Madonna with the line, "Father McKenzie writing the words to a sermon that no one will hear". That line must have come from the Beatles themselves, Liverpool Lads! Christianity and The Church feature prominently in their local area, and when they worked with Sir George Martin who recently "passed to glory" it was sung across the world time and again and became part of our experience in "Popular Music".

Have you noticed something that has been going on this year with the number of music and entertainment personalities "passing to glory" heaven must have some new entertainment and shows going on!

"Lemmy" an extraordinary electric guitarist, song writer and vocalist, Lemmy was always loud, extra loud, I can see heaven emptying now. Shortly after Lemmy came David Bowie. Songwriter, musician, vocalist, film star amongst other things.

David Bowie was an acquired taste in contemporary music. What he did I believe over five decades or more was to connect with people of different generations and cultures in each of those decades.

When he "passed to glory" there was almost a Bowie wave of mourning and grief that struck the nation and spread across the world. It showed the way Bowie was enjoyed by so many people, he gave such a lot. I have never been a fan of The Eurovision Song Contest except when Abba was giving us something lasting with the song called "Waterloo". Where my enthusiasm lacked in Euro Vision it more than made up with Children in Need, I even had my own Pudsey Bear set up when I used to do School Assemblies.

If you can remember Children in Need then you can remember Sir Terry Wogan. I can remember when he signed off from Radio 2 Breakfast Show, now hosted by Chris Evans. It stopped the nation! He wrote out his script in full because he knew that it was to be an emotional experience and he would have to hold things together. What made Sir Terry Wogan? We did! His own personality and character and his audience or world congregation.

Now for my next trick. A few days ago Paul Daniels the Magician of Magicians said a fond farewell and goodbye for now. You couldn't fail not to be impressed by his magic skills and talents, Magicians held him in very high esteem. He cut his teeth and developed his act in the northern places where people had to be enticed out and it was hard to make them laugh. What is magic? It is the art of deception in a nice way and were we entertained? Yes we were, so thank you Paul Daniels.

I mentioned earlier, Sir George Martin known as the Fifth Beatle, with his musical gifting of musical arrangement, song, and the production of music being his forte. Even my father who is a bit of a Philistine when it came to music (and they are his words not mine) said to me one day. Do you know John "The Beatles are as popular as Jesus Christ". Talk about my father mixing the secular with the divine, which incidentally is very woven together is quite a profound thing to say. The Beatles lived to alter the course of developing popular music. Back then, I did agree with my father's view, today as I have come to faith I would dispute it quite strongly, but that doesn't really matter. Legacy has become a popular word particularly after large sporting events.

Jesus didn't solely come to be popular, in fact he made a lot of enemies, and he did not come to entertain either although I am sure he could hold people's attention bound by what he did and what he said. Cont'd over

The way he lived, the way he died, the way he rose again, his character, personality and the divine nature of God shone through him.

I have undoubtedly missed people who have also "passed to glory" including the voice of Lady Penelope of Thunderbirds fame, Gerry Andersons wife (by the way I am sure Lady Penelope was a Methodist). All these people leave a great gift to us in life, life in all its fullness, the difference is that Jesus is an eternal gift for which we should all be truly thankful to God.

Every blessing in Jesus

All the Difference

I got up early one morning
and rushed right into the day;
I had so much to accomplish
that I didn't have time to pray.
Problems just tumbled about me,
and heavier came each task.
'Why doesn't God help me?' I wondered.
He answered, 'You didn't ask'.
I wanted to see joy and beauty,
but the day toiled on grey and bleak,
I wondered why God didn't show me,
He said 'But you didn't seek'.
I tried to come into God's presence
I used all my keys at the lock.
God gently and lovingly chided,
'My child you didn't knock'.
I woke up early this morning
and paused before entering the day:
I had so much to accomplish
That I had to take time to pray.
